BY LAWS
Of The
Cyrenius H. Booth Library Board of Trustees

PREAMBLE

The Cyrenius H. Booth Library plays an important academic, cultural, and social role in the Newtown community, and each member of the Board of Trustees contributes his or her time and energy to ensure that the library remains relevant and achieves excellence in a changing and competitive environment.

The CHB Library Board is an active and democratic board that meets regularly for the purpose of providing oversight and direction for the library. All board members join in one or more committees and attend monthly board and committee meetings. The role of the board member is to make a real and substantive contribution to the mission of the library in all of the following ways.

1. Believe in and be an active advocate for the mission and vision of the library.
2. Adhere to a high standard of ethical conduct.
3. Contribute to the effective operation of the Board.
4. Regularly attend Board and committee meetings and actively engage in those meetings.
5. Attend library programs and fund-raising events.
6. Identify and cultivate relationships to support the library.
7. Contribute personal and professional expertise for the benefit of the library.
8. Financially contribute to the library and assist in all fund-raising efforts.
9. Avoid conflicts of interest and keep the Board apprised of any conflicts whether they are real or perceived.
10. Self-evaluate performance and step down if unable to fulfill expectations.

1.10 NAME, PURPOSE, MEMBERS AND AUTHORITY

- 1.1 Name. The name of this corporation is, as set forth in a Special Act. No. 108 of the 1931 Session of the Connecticut General Assembly, the Trustees of the Cyrenius H. Booth Library. This corporation may be referred to as the Cyrenius H. Booth Library or, hereafter as the Library.
- 1.2 Authority and Purpose. The Library was established pursuant to the provisions of the Last Will and Testament of the late Mary E. Hawley and the provisions of the said Special Act No. 108 for the purpose of erecting, equipping and maintaining a free public library in Newtown, Connecticut, which may be hereafter referred to as the Town.

1.3 Members. All of the business, properties and management of the Library shall be controlled by the Board of Trustees, which may be hereafter referred to as the Board.

1.4 Tax Exempt Status

- a. The Library shall be at all times conducted as an “Exempt Organization” within the meaning of the provisions of Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder. Any reference herein to any provision of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the Regulations promulgated thereunder, and shall be deemed to mean, such provision as now or hereafter existing, amended, supplemented, or superseded, as the case may be. This corporation shall not have or exercise any power or authority, either expressly or by interpretation or operation of law, nor shall it directly or indirectly engage in any activity which would prevent it from qualifying and continuing to qualify as an Exempt Organization under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or as an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of such Internal Revenue Code and Regulations.
- b. The Library’s purposes shall be confined to those which are strictly scientific, educational and charitable, and for the public benefit, and not for pecuniary profit nor for the benefit of any individual or special interest group but rather for the benefit of the general public at large.
- c. All of the Library’s assets and earnings shall be used exclusively for the purposes set forth in its Certificate of Incorporation and these Bylaws, including the payment of expenses incidental thereto, and no part of the net earnings of the Library shall inure to the benefit of any member, director, officer of the Library, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for the services rendered to or for the Library affecting one or more of its purposes), and no member, director, officer of the Library, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the Library’s assets on dissolution of the Library. No part of the activities of the Library shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Library shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
- d. In the event of the termination, liquidation, dissolution or winding up of this Library, whether voluntary or involuntary, in any manner or for any reason whatsoever, no member shall be entitled to any distribution or division of its remaining property or its proceeds and the balance of all money and other property received by the Library, shall be distributed as provided by the laws of the State of Connecticut, particularly Section 33-1174 et seq. of the Connecticut General Statutes, provided that such distribution of the remaining assets of the Library shall be made only to one or more organizations as has, or have at the time of such distribution, qualified as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

- e. The Library shall not have any objectives, nor shall it engage in any activities, which would cause it to be characterized as an “Action Organization” as that term is defined in Regulation 1.501 (c) (3) under said Internal Revenue Code.

2.0 ADMINISTRATION

2.1 Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees, consisting of individual trustees (“Trustees”) elected in accordance with Article 3 below, shall manage the affairs of the Library, subject to its delegation powers described in Section 2.3 below.

2.2 Action by the Board of Trustees. Unless otherwise prescribed by these by-laws or the laws of the State of Connecticut, all action taken by the Board of Trustees shall be by affirmative vote of a majority of the Trustees present to vote at a meeting of the Board of Trustees at which there is a quorum. Each Trustee shall have one vote; no persons other than Trustees shall be allowed to vote. Any action taken by any committee or subcommittee of the Board of Trustees shall not be deemed to be action taken by the Board of Trustees.

2.3 Delegation. The Board of Trustees in its sole discretion may delegate its authority to the staff of the library or to any other appropriate person or entity, other than with respect to those duties and responsibilities generally enumerated in Section 2.4 below. The Board reserves the right to revoke such delegated authority at any time.

2.4 Duties and Responsibilities of the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees shall:

- a. Appoint the Library Director
- b. Approve the Executive Committee’s annual review of the Director’s performance and recommended compensation on an annual basis.
- c. Oversee the preparation and submission of the Library’s budget to the Town of Newtown.
- d. Coordinate and conduct development and other fundraising activities.
- e. Oversee and manage the Library’s investments and/or endowment.
- f. Establish and enforce the policies of the Library.
- g. Develop and cause the execution of a strategic plan for the Library.

- h. Elect the Officers of the Board and new Trustees.
- i. Review and evaluate the Board of Trustees on an annual basis.
- j. Remove Officers, Trustees and the Library Director from their positions in accordance with these by-laws.
- k. To appoint, on an annual basis, the Library's auditor.
- l. Perform such other action consistent with the purpose of the Library.

2.5 Policies. The Board of Trustees shall develop and maintain a set of policies to govern and guide the Library. Each policy shall be initially approved by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of all current Trustees. Any policy may be subsequently reviewed and revised, provided, however, that any revision and/or amendment to any existing policy shall be approved by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of all current Trustees. These by-laws and all policies of the Library shall be publicly available.

2.6 Library Director. The chief executive and administrative officer of the Library shall be the Library Director, who shall have all the powers and authority necessary to manage and operate the Library under the review and direction of the Board of Trustees. The Library Director shall carry out the policies established by the Board of Trustees, and shall report directly to the Board of Trustees. The Library Director is expected to attend Board of Trustees meetings. The Director shall notify the president when unable to attend.

2.7 Assistant Library Director. The Library Director may appoint an Assistant Library Director subject to the approval of the Board. The Assistant Library Director shall report to the Library Director.

2.8 Other Personnel. The Library Director shall appoint all other Library personnel, all of whom shall report directly or indirectly to the Library Director. Any direct report additions or changes should be reported to the board and subject to approval of the Board if not within budget.

2.9 Compensation of Library Staff. The Board of Trustees shall determine the compensation for the Library Director, which shall be reviewed on an annual basis, subject to the Library's budget. The Library Director shall determine the compensation for all other Library employees in consultation with the Treasurer.

3.0 TRUSTEES

3.1 Powers. Each Trustee shall have the powers provided under these by-laws and the laws of the State of Connecticut.

3.2 Compensation. No member of the Board of Trustees, no officer of the Library, and no member of any committee of the Library shall be paid for his or her services as such.

3.3 Conflict of Interest. No Trustee shall have any direct or indirect pecuniary, financial, economic or other material personal or individual beneficial interest with respect to any activity involving such Trustee and relating to the Association and the Library. All trustees must annually attest to compliance with this Conflict of Interest section . A Trustee who discovers that he or she has an actual or potential conflict of interest as described in the preceding sentence shall (i) fully, completely and immediately disclose the existence of such conflict of interest to the Executive Committee and (ii) recuse himself or herself from all discussions, deliberations and proceedings relating to the activity that is the subject of the actual or potential conflict to interest. The Executive Committee shall determine, after a full investigation, whether there is a conflict of interest. If the Executive Committee determines that there is a conflict of interest, it shall take all appropriate and necessary action to resolve and eliminate such conflict.

- 3.4 Number of Trustees. There shall be a Board of Trustees of the Library consisting of sixteen (16) persons who shall be residents and electors of the Town.
- 3.5 Appointment by the Town of Newtown. Eight (8) trustees shall be appointed by the First Selectman with the approval of the Board of Selectmen in conformance with the Charter of the Town of Newtown.
- 3.6 Election by the Board of Trustees. Eight (8) trustees shall be elected by the vote of the remaining trustees present and voting at a meeting warned for the purpose.
- 3.7 Start of Term. Each year at the July Annual Meeting, Trustees shall be elected by the Board to serve for a term of four (4) years and each year Trustees shall be appointed pursuant to Section 3.5 above to fill vacant seats.
- 3.8 Term of Service. Trustees shall serve two (4) year terms. A Trustee filling a vacancy shall serve to the end of the term of the Trustee they are replacing and then begin serving their own four (4) year term. No Trustee shall serve more than eight (8) consecutive years in addition to any unexpired previous term. Said Trustee shall be ineligible to serve as a Trustee for a period of two (2) years.
- 3.9 Resignation. A Trustee may resign for any reason at any time. Such Trustee should provide reasonable and timely notice to the President of the Board of Trustees of such resignation.
- 3.10 Removal. A member of the Board unable to perform his or her duties or absent three (3) consecutive regular meetings, without excuse from the President may be removed by the Board. In addition, any member of the Board may be removed with or without cause at any meeting of the Board upon the affirmative vote of at least 75% of all current Trustees, provided that each member of the Board shall have been given written notice prior to the meeting that a purpose of the meeting is to consider the removal of the member in question. The effective date of removal shall be the date of the meeting at which the vote of the Board regarding the member in question occurred, unless otherwise provided by the Board. A member of the Board removed in accordance with this Section shall be notified in writing of removal.

Appointed member of the Board may be removed for cause in accordance with Section 4-40 of the Charter of the Town of Newtown.

- 3.11 Vacancies. Any vacancy resulting from the death, incapacity, disqualification, resignation or removal of a Trustee shall be filled in accordance with the Sections 3.5 and 3.6 above. Vacancies in offices filled by appointment of the Board of Selectmen shall be filled by appointment of the Board of Selectmen; vacancies in offices filled by election by the Trustees shall be filled by the Board. Vacancies in offices filled by election of the Trustees shall be referred to the Governance Committee.

The successor Trustee shall serve for the unexpired term of the Trustee who created the vacancy.

7.0 MISCELLANEOUS

7.1 Effective Date. These by-laws shall become effective on November 10, 2015 and as amended through June 13, 2023.

7.2 Fiscal Year. The Library's fiscal year shall begin on July 1st and end on the following June 30th.

7.3 Parliamentary Procedures. The Board of Trustees shall adhere to the parliamentary procedures as specified in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, with such modifications from time to time in the interests of time and efficacy as agreed to by the Board of Trustees.

7.4 Amendment. These by-laws may be amended by an affirmative vote of at least 75% of all current Trustees. All amendments of, and alterations of, these by-laws shall be proposed at a regular meeting of the board of Trustees, and shall be continued until the next regular meeting before final action shall be had thereon.

7.5 Advisory Council. The Board of Trustees may establish an Advisory Council, the purpose of which shall be to assist the Board and the Library in developmental and operational activities. All members of the Advisory Council and the chair of the Advisory Council shall be selected by the President, subject to the approval by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of all current Trustees. Any member of the Advisory Council may be removed for any reason or for no reason by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of all current Trustees.

7.6 Other Councils and Boards. The Board of Trustees may establish other councils or boards to assist it in performing its duties and responsibilities to the Library and the Library that are not inconsistent with the purpose of the Library and these by-laws. The chair and members of such councils or boards shall be selected by the President. Any chair or member of any such council or board may be removed for any reason or for no reason by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of all current Trustees.

7.7 Honorary Titles. The Board of Trustees may bestow honorary titles to any person living or deceased by an affirmative vote of at least 75% of all current Trustees. Trustees Emeritus and Honorary Trustees shall be entitled, upon annual written request, to receive notices and minutes of Board meetings, and to attend Board meetings with the privilege of the floor, but shall not be entitled to vote. Honorary or Emeritus Trustees need not be residents or electors of the Town. Honorary and Emeritus Trustees may serve for life.

- 7.8 Indemnification. Each Trustee and each Library employee shall be indemnified and held harmless to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, against all costs, charges and expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred or sustained by such Trustee or employee in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which such Trustee or employee may be made a party, brought by any third party by reason of any act or omission by the Trustee as a trustee of the Library or any act or omission by an employee of the Library as an employee of the Library, provided, however, that such act or omission was (i) taken in good faith, (ii) lawful and appropriate and (iii) in the best interests of the Board and the Library.
- 7.9 Governing Law. These by-laws shall be construed under the laws of the State of Connecticut without reference to principles of conflict of laws, unless superseded by federal law.
- 7.10 Severability. In the event that any provision or portion of these by-laws shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, in whole or part, the remaining provisions of these by-laws shall be unaffected thereby and shall remain in full force and effect to the fullest extent permitted by law.
- 7.11 Notifications. All notifications shall be in writing and transmitted by United States mail, facsimile, email or other appropriate means. Receipt of such notification shall be deemed to have occurred upon transmittal.
